

Artist Memberships

Your Charter Membership gives you customizable online space to represent you and your art. The heart of each membership is a page that you can tailor with the look, feel and features that best represent your work and your business goals.

- Artist's bio
- Artwork images
- Artwork descriptions
- Artist's blog
- Awards, citations & publications
- Linked business website
- Linked festival schedules
- Linked local gallery schedule
- Linked sales events
- Linked social profiles
- Linked wholesale schedule
- SEO tags
- Customer feedback
- Booth photos
- studio photos

Learn how to improve your skills to achieve success in selling your art, both in person and online. In order to help merge the worlds of art and commerce, members have unlimited access to our private Business Center with valuable info and resources.

- Fan favorite! Our exclusive, comprehensive and up-to-date local show database with vendor applications, deadlines, reviews and statistics.
- Browse our curated lists of relevant art, business and creativity websites.
- An ever-growing library of useful original content and shared articles will teach you valuable business skills.
- Take advantage of our affiliations with local and virtual educational resources
- Read and participate in art and business product reviews*
- Learn how to navigate the wholesale market.
- Research knowledge bases for both state and federal taxes.
- Watch creative and technical tutorials.*
- Find groups, associations and organizations to join.
- Learn how to market yourself and your art for maximum return.
- Find out how to control your SEO and get more action on your site
- Let your customers know where they can always find you and your work with an ArtShow.org branded booth sign.
- Make personal and professional connections with your peers: other artists. Chat and socialize, discuss and collaborate, friend and follow.
- Let our team offer advice on optimizing your online presence with website assessments.*
- Receive discounts to select local and online businesses to save on a plethora of business expenses like printing and framing.
- Create instant collectibles for your customers with ArtShow.org branded business cards that have your art on the front, your contact info on the back and fold into a stand-up easel so your art is always on display! Customers losing your business cards is a thing of the past.
- Connect with your fans and meet new ones in our ArtShow.org public Facebook group.
- Get feedback on how to improve your show booth with our gentle but helpful critique system.*
- Find studio space, sell extra art supplies, place an ad for help, offer collaborative services, or whatever you think of.
- Participate in upcoming live online art sales events.*
- Gain valuable insights via small-group, 1:1 or webinar meetups with ArtShow.org advisory partners.*
- Earn points for completing activities and reviews online and redeem for valuable ArtShow.org swag.